CASHMEER AND UMRITSUR.

SHAWL DEPOT AND AGENCY.

MESSRS. DAVEE SAHAEE AND CHUMBA MULL, of Umritsur, have the honor to inform those who have hitherto been pleased to deal with them, and the public of India in general, that they continue to supply either—at once from their own extensive Stores,—or to order, when special patterns or manufactures may be required,—every article made of Shawl, wool, (technically known as Pushmeena, because manufactured of Pushm,) and that they have now a large and varied Stock of genuine Cashmeer Shawls (long and square), and Umritsur ditto, which designation includes the looms of Noorpoor, Jelalpoor, Loodeeana, &c., &c. Their Muleeda shawls, long and square, braided in Silk and of the newest patterns, are very handsome, and peculiarly suited for cold climates, Mn ceda is sold (as also Puttoo) in pieces.

Their Chogas, Opera Cloaks, Table Covers, &c., (prepared to order chiefly) are universally sought after. Their Dress pieces, Capes, Polkas, &c., similarly prepared to order) are the admiration of all purchasers, while their Chuddors (woven of the finest Cashmeer shawl-wool thread) have obtained a world wide reputation. No less than four hundred were sold at the last Paris and London Exhibitions, and the enquiries for them in Paris, this year, were so numerous that D. S and C. M. feel assured thousands might have been disposed of, had they been available. Varieties of these are on hand, with needle-work Shawl border, braid borders and plain black borders, and sell readily at from 70 to 80 Rs., according to quality and work. The price of the more ordinary ones is from 33 to 37 Rs.

The Silks, manufactured to the order of Davee Sahaee and Chumba Mull, have been greatly admired; and it may be stated, in witness of their claim to public support, in every branch of their business, that they hold Certificates of Honorable mention, Silver medals without end from Paris, London, Lahore, Jubbulpore and Agra, and one of the true gold medals awarded by the Punjab Exhibition of 1864, in proof of the superior excellence of the items they exhibited.

They are prepared to receive orders from Officers Commanding Regiments, Europeans or Native, Artillery, Cavalry, or Infantry, for Silk Sashes, Kummerbunds, Puggrees, &c. but require samples, as a guide, in most instances, as patterns vary so much.

Note.—Messrs. Davee Sahaee and Chumba Mull, General Agents, take the opportunity of stating that with the view of saving all unpleasant references, their prices are fixed, and that they will on no account, abate anything on the same, whether the orders they may be favored with are large or small.

Those who are good enough to favor them with orders will be pleased to furnish their full address.

☞ Detailed List of goods, with approximate prices, will be furnished on application.

NOTICE.

CONFIRMATORY of our recent announcement, we have the pleasure to inform our Friends and Constituents in Western India, that we have RECOMMENCED BUSINESS IN THIS CITY, and that our OFFICES are situated in DEAN LANE, Bombay, where communications should be addressed us.

We beg also to notify that Mr. JOHN EDWARD BODGER is authorized to sign our Firm from this date until further notice.

Bombay, 31st December 1867.

CUTLER PALMER & Co.,
(of London and Bordeaux.)

WITH reference to the foregoing, we beg to announce that in addition to our own exclusive business of WINE AND SPIRIT MERCHANTS, we have been entrusted with the AGENCIES of the following WELL-KNOWN LONDON HOUSES, and we shall shortly invite the attention of Traders to samples:—

GREEN & Co., Iron Merchants.—Manufacturers of Iron Bar; H.op, Sheets, Boiler Plates, and Rupee Bars, also Welsh Iron, Galvanized and Corrugated Sheets.

THE PATENT NUT AND BOLT COMPANY.—Manufacturers of the Patent Cotton Bale Lock-tie (we call special attention to this invention as economically superseding the rope bands now in use), Rivets, Couch Screws and Bolts, Set Lines, &c.

BUNNETT & Co.—Manufacturers of Revolving Iron and Wood Shutters, Warehouse Lifts, Brass and Zinc Name Plates, &c.

MERRYWEATHER & SONS.—Manufacturers of Fire, Garden and Conservatory Engines, Fire Escapes, Ladders, and Pumps, (obtained latest Medals)

S. B. BEAL.—Fine Art Pictures, Engravings, and Photographs.

SIR W. BURNETT & Co.—Manufacturers of Disinfecting Fluids for preserving Timber, Canvas, Linen, &c. from Mildew, Rot, and the Ravages of White Ants. (Railway Companies and Ship owners are invited to ascertain particulars of the above.)

COPLAND & Co.—Wholesale Preserved Provision Merchants. This house is second to none in their particular line of business. We specially invite Indents for their goods.

HOLGATE & Co.—Manufacturers in Leather, of Mill Bands for Engines, Hose Pipes, White Laces, Rope, Cord, Gas Band, and Vulcanized Indian Rubber Suction Hose and Bands. This firm's specialities in Leather are worth attention. (Samples on show.)

MOULE & Co., (LIMITED).—Manufacturers of the PATENT EARTH CLOSET or COMMODE, for which the Government of India recently awarded MR. MOULE the sum of £500 in testimony of their great appreciation of the invention. These CLOSETS are PARTICULARLY ADAPTED FOR INDIAN REQUIREMENTS; their action is most simple, and can be easily arranged by native servants. They effectually remedy all the evils arising from the ordinary Commodes, and are constructed upon the well-known properties of earth as a deodorising agent,—a GIVEN QUANTITY of earth destroying all smell and entirely preventing noxious vapours and other discomforts. Thirty of these Earth Closets as a first instalment are now on the way. SAMPLE CLOSETS will be landed very shortly. It is impossible to describe within the limits of an advertisement the marvellously simple mechanical contrivance by which these Commodes entire y do away with all nuisance. They can be fitted to accommodate HOSPITALS, BARRACKS, HOTELS, as easily as for use in a private family. Her Majesty's Government have now caused them to be introduced into all the principal Military Stations and Hospitals in England.

The Rev. Henry Moule, the inventor, has just received from the Indian Government a gratifying and substantial recognition of the value of his system of dry earth sewage. The following is an extract from a letter addressed to him from the India Office in London, dated September 25th, 1867:—"I am directed by Sir Stafford Northcote to forward for your information copies of Reports which have now been received from the Government of India, on the successful and general adoption of your dry earth sewage system in India. In consideration of the very satisfactory character of these Reports, and on the recommendation of the Government of India, the Secretary of State for India in Council has much pleasure in authorising the payment to you of the sum of Five hundred pounds."

THE FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY have also solicited us to receive orders for their greatly admired Machines.

We are also empowered to receive Indents for Carriages of every description from the MANUFACTURERS TO HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, and for all kinds of AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS from Messrs. RANSOME and SIMS.

Further particulars and many illustrations of the abovenamed articles can be obtained and inspected at our offices, in DEAN LANE, BOMBAY.

CUTLER, PALMER & Co.

NOTICE.—TO MESSES, GENERAL MERCHANTS, and EUROPEAN RESIDENTS OF WESTERN INDIA, &c. &c. We beg respectfully to solicit your commands for our WINES, SPIRITS, and CORDIALS now that Messrs. ROGERS & Co. have ceased supplying the same. Our business in Europe has for the last FIFTY YEARS been confined to the Wine trade, and being Shippers on the London and Bordeaux market, we claim to be in a position to meet the requirements of connoisseurs; superior to all competing houses in Bombay. Our Brand is extensively known and appreciated in all parts of the civilised world, we trust that the re-establishment of a Branch of our House in this Capital may meet with general support. We shall do our utmost to merit the same.

CUTLER PALMER & Co., Dean Lane Bombay

We subjoin our LIST OF SELECTED WINES for this Market: and call special attention to our greatly reduced prices.

The Bombay Gazette

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1868.

As we had nothing but the best interests of the New Bank of Bombay at heart in penning the remarks which we published on Monday, and as our object was apparent throughout our whole comments as well as broadly stated therein, we should have expected the Times of India as the patron saint of the Bank to have supported us in our endeavours to prevent it from being led, in the very first hours of its being, into what would have been a fatal error. It is simply preposterous and perverse misrepresentation to charge us with "fostering idle suspicions, and throwing every possible hindrance in the way of an institution in the success of which," our contemporary avers, rightly or wrongly, "the prosperity of the city is bound up." In the first place the "suspicions" were the common talk of the town, and the distrust was becoming universal, lest a number of objectionable securities belonging to the old Bank should be taken over by the new. In the second place, the hindrances and distrust were due (next to the blundering prospectus) to the indiscreet and untruthful zeal with which our contemporary was coaching the Bank along, a zeal which seemed to stop at no amount of misstatement if it served the paltry end of the moment. Our contemporary, with an astounding amount of faith in the gullibility of the public, kept assuring us all that the new Bank had no connection whatever with the old. But there stood the prospectus with its gigantic blunder in it, and there stands the prospectus with the blunder in it still. The public doubted; at last distrusted; the shares which began at ten premium have fallen to par, but it must be owned the character of the direction has also something to do with the decline in the value of the shares. The prospectus forced the interrogatory on the public and the public asked—Whether the securities to be "approved of" would be quite sound. They had seen a good deal during the last few years of what Bankers in Bombay have "approved of" in the shape of securities, and they were quite warranted in enquiring of themselves if the old Bank had any good securities left. The puzzle was enhanced by the injudicious speech of Mr. Rimington at the meeting of the shareholders of the old Bank on 11th December. "The new Bank of Bombay" said Mr. Rimington, "was "not to take over from the old Bank, in cover "of the accounts transferred to it, only such "assets as might be offered to it, but the secu"rities so taken over were to be such as should be "approved by the Directors of the new Bank..... "The Directors would not take over any secu"rities from the present Bank which any pru"dent Banker would feel hesitation in placing "in his chest." Now, why did not Mr. Rimington when he was rhodomantading about "prudent Bankers," of whom we have had such a large and honorable crop in Bombay of late years, at once announce what he announced in the letter by his firm in the Times of India yesterday (and what was also announced authoritatively from another quarter in our own columns), that the securities to cover the deposits and balances of current accounts taken over would be cash, Government paper, and guaranteed Railway Stock? Had he done so, or had the prospectus done so, as both ought, one of the two causes of distrust which have affected the public mind would not have existed and the Bank would have started under a better guarantee of success than it found in the vapid and apocryphal assurances of the Times of India. We modestly think, though of course our contemporary will differ from us, that we have done the new Bank a greater service by pointing out a leading cause of popular dissatisfaction than by nursing it on the milksops that are provided for it in Church Gate Street.

The letter which we published yesterday from the Secretary to the old Bank to Government also exonerates us from the foolish charge of "playing on the prejudices of ignorant people." That letter intimates that unless Government can advance to the Bank a quarter of a million sterling to enable it to hand over its business to the new Bank, the present institution will be compelled to suspend payment. The paragraph which we published yesterday, simply as it was furnished to us, is very unsatisfactory to depositors. Does the announcement contain the substance of the answer of Government to the above letter of application, which was also furnished to us without note or comment in the course of the same afternoon? If so we think it would have been only prudent to publish the official reply of Government in which Government undertook to enable the old Bank to cover all its deposits and balances on current account. Until this is done or until the Directors or Secretary of the old Bank announce the arrangement officially, the depositors have still reason to be uneasy about the time of recovering payment; and their best course is undoubtedly to secure their balances while the old Bank remains open, unless the reply of Government is published or official intimation made by the old Bank that all balances have been covered by a Government advance.

THE Times of India, after exactly a fortnight's cogitation, has at last brought forth a second article on the subject of the Grant Medical College even more extraordinary than the first. We say more extraordinary, for observing that the first article showed gross ignorance of the subject, we, as our contemporary very truly states, criticised it gently, believing the editor to be misled by false information supplied by those who are ever ready through ignorance, jealousy, and envy, to attack any body of men who from superior qualifications have acquired a position above that which their assailants can ever hope to attain. But the Times of India, instead of subsiding under its well deserved rebuke, and feeling itself sold by its information, trespasses on our forbearance, by repeating in a second article the malicious libels and fabrications of its first, and endeavours to prove the inefficiency of the Grant College staff, 1st, by misquoting Dr. Birdwood's speech; 2nd, by bringing forward fabrications to disprove the statements contained in our first article, and, 3rd, by reiterating those vague accusations of favouritism shown in the selection of Professors which disgraced its former essay on the subject. With regard to the first of these points Dr. Birdwood in his able address to the University of Bombay, instead of condemning, specially complimented the present staff of the Grant Medical College on its efficiency, and attacked the now celebrated G. O. on the ground that its provisions would tend at some future period to destroy it. With regard to the second point, viz. the fabrications by which the Times of India attempts to support its slanders, we have to point out the following :—1st, the Student Apprentices, who were compared with the students were, according to our contemporary, "picked out." Now, it so happens that there were only five student apprentices of the same standing as the students in question in the College, all of whom were much better up in their subjects than the four students. 2nd, from the same authority we learn that the student apprentices "are in the way of receiving instruction from the vernacular teachers." This is simply an untruth. The student apprentices receive no instruction whatever from the vernacular teachers, and that they have not nearly the same advantages as the students, may be simply proved by the fact that when not at the College the student apprentices are engaged in hospital duties, while the students have their time at their own disposal for study. 3rd. According to the Times of India, the inefficiency and unpopularity of the College is shown by the falling off in the number of students. Perhaps the Times of India can reconcile this statement with the fact that the number of students entering the College has been steadily rising during the last four years, and is this year greater than ever it has been since 1846. Again, the average number of men passed annually by the College in the eleven years anterior to the establishment in 1862 of the University of Bombay was only five: in the seven subsequent years the average number has been 3, a difference completely accounted for (and absolutely foretold by Dr. Peet in one of his reports) by the greater difficulty of the examination and the imposition by the University of the preliminary test of Matriculation, without the necessity of accusing the College of having declined in its popularity. In fact, as we stated in a previous article, it is impossible to judge the Grant College solely by one of its departments, and that department the smallest, and still in its infancy. In order to form an opinion of its success, the whole three departments of students, student apprentices and vernacular apprentices must be taken into account, and we confidently assert that when the efficiency of the College is estimated by its success in its three departments collectively, it will be found to be as efficient, if not more so than it ever has been, or, indeed, as the average of Medical Colleges in the United Kingdom. Lastly, the vague charge brought by the Times of India of the selection of the staff of the Grant Medical College having been influenced by favoritism, we deny in toto, and defy our contemporary to prove its assertion, and have only further to remark that whenever from a body of men eight or ten have to be selected to fill appointments like those of the Professorships of the Grant Medical College, those upon whom the selection has not fallen will be ever ready to bring up the accusation of favoritism, an accusation in this case so unfounded that we wonder at its having twice appeared in the columns of a periodical pretending to the position of one of the daily papers of the second largest city in Her Majesty's dominions.

THE BUTCHERS.

A FEW days ago the public was put to considerable inconvenience by the whole of the butchers in Bombay striking in consequence of their unwillingness to submit to the new scale of slaughter house fees imposed by the Municipal Commissioner. On that occasion prompt measures were taken by Mr. Crawford to obtain the services of other butchers from up-country, who were at once procured without difficulty, seeing which the butchers of Bombay at once came in and expressed their willingness to resume their former position begging of the Commissioner to allow them to do so; but Mr. Crawford, very properly, insisted upon their giving some substantial guarantee for their future good behaviour. The result of which is that both the Beef and Mutton Butchers have each presented a petition to the Municipal Commissioner, humbly begging pardon of the community at large and of the Municipal authorities, and depositing in the hands of Mr. Crawford two sums of Rs. 5,000 each, to be forfeited in the event of their ever again attempting to strike or oppose the Municipal authorities.

Mr. Crawford has taught these people a lesson, which it is to be hoped will have a salutary effect upon them for generations; and is justly entitled to the thanks of the whole community for the manner in which he has acted. The following is the one of the petitions alluded to, and the other, from the "Mutton Butchers," is a counterpart of this one:—

We, the Beef Butchers of Bombay, now humbly beg pardon of the community at large and of the Municipal authorities for the recent and former strikes. We hereby, one and all, promise that nothing of the kind shall occur again, and as a material guarantee we hereby deposit with the Municipal Commissioner the sum of rupees five thousand, which we are willing to have forfeited for the benefit of the Municipal Fund should there ever again be a strike or any attempt to oppose the decisions of the Worshipful Bench of Justices or to break through the conditions hereinafter agreed to. We beg that this sum may be deposited in the names of Wullee bin Mahomed and Maboob Ruhimon and Tazoo Kala, who, on our behalf, will draw the interest at the rate of five per centum per annum. We all agree to the following conditions now imposed by the Municipal Commissioner, viz:—

That each Butcher shall register his own name and that of each partner in the office of the Health Officer and shall take out a license for each year on payment to the Municipal Fund of a fee of (Rs. 15) fifteen rupees for each man.

That the "Hukkh" or market for cattle shall be held at Bandora within the Municipal enclosure and at no other place.

That thirty five (35) train tickets only shall be issued free for the helkuries employed by us. This number to be reduced when the new Beef Market is completed and the meat-siding brought up to it.

That Butchers and Cammatteerries travelling by the meat train shall pay for their own tickets.

That the following men who have stood by the Municipality during our strike shall obtain a license free, and shall occupy a stall for one year on payment of a nominal fee of one pie only. Names:—Lall Hoshein, Mahomed Cassim, Hajee Hubseb Shaik Russool, Chan Mahomed Noor Mahomed, Tajoo Hoshein, Currim Mahomed Tajoo, and Tajoo Moorad.

That in the event of disobedience of the orders of the Municipal Commissioner or the Health Officer, the offender's license to slaughter shall be liable to be cancelled, and he himself ejected from the Municipal Markets, forfeiting all fees or rents paid by him.

FORT POLICE COURT.—7TH JANUARY.

(BEFORE JOHN CONNON, ESQ.)

RAM DAYAL RUGONATH yesterday laid an information before Mr Connon at the Fort Police Office to the effect that in August last he had negotiated with Shree Ram Dowlutram on 50 bales of twist which was sent by the S. S. Asia from Bombay to Hongkong Three of the bales were damaged on the voyage, and the deponent took the policy to the defendant and left it at his shop in Mombadevie. Defendant told him to bring the preliminary medorandum of the transaction. Deponent took the memorandum next day to defendant's shop, when defendant wrote something at the foot of the Policy and then threw it at deponent, saying that he was not liable for the damage. The words added at the foot of the policy were "this is according to English practise."

His Worship granted a summons calling upon Shree Ram Dowlutram to appear before him on the 21st inst.

(BEFORE NANA MOROJEE, ESQ.)

THEFT.—Subana, a buggy driver, was charged with having stolen, on the 31st ultimo, 30 pieces of wearing apparel, of the value of Rs. 69-7-3, belonging to one Mahomed Hussein Ackbar Hussein. It appeared that Mahomed had arrived by train from Sholapore, and had engaged the prisoner's buggy. While passing through the Bazaar, Mahomed had gone to get a drink of water, and the prisoner took the opportunity to drive off with the goods. When apprehended the prisoner admitted having the property. His Honour sentenced him to receive 10 stripes.—The same prisoner was also charged with having stolen from a godown on Monday evening five pieces of cotton cope and some other articles of the value of Rs. 10, for which offence he was found guilty, and sentenced to receive ten stripes.

THEFT OF BRANDY BY A SERVANT.—Baloo Nusoo was charged with having stolen a bottle of brandy belonging to the mess of the officers of the 108th Regiment. It appeared that he had been employed as a servant of one of the officers, and been discharged and thereafter (on Monday last) had gone to the mess house and stolen a bottle of brandy. He denied the charge but was convicted and sentenced to receive eight stripes.

A SHIP CASE.—W. Barge, a seaman belonging to the ship Eric, was charged with wilful desobedience of lawful commands, and being found guilty was sentenced to suffer three weeks' imprisonment with hard labour.

MAZAGON POLICE COURT.—7TH JANUARY.

(BEFORE R. H. SHOWELL, ESQ.)

A REPUTED THIEF.—Hyder Khan Hoossein Ally was charged with stealing a piece of wearing apparel, belonging to one Jerome D'Souza. His Worship convicted the prisoner and sentenced him to be imprisoned for two months in the County Jail with hard labour.

THEFT.—Gunnoo Rama was convicted of having stolen a nut-key, the property of a Parsee named Eduljee Pallonjee, and sentenced to receive ten stripes.

LAW.

SMALL CAUSE COURT.—7TH JAN.

BEFORE THE FULL COURT.

Manockjall Damodhur vs. the Justices of the Peace for the City of Bombay.

It will be remembered that this case was called on for trial before His Honor the First Judge on the 3rd instant, when nobody appearing on behalf of the defendants an exparte verdict was given for the plaintiff for Rs. 1,000 and costs, being the amount of damages sustained by him in consequence of the Municipal Commissioner having caused to be pulled down certain portions of his bungalow at Gowalia.

Mr. Leathes yesterday appeared before the court on behalf of the defendants, and applied for a new trial under the following circumstances:—He stated that on the 17th December last the matter of this suit was referred by the Municipal Commissioner to the Executive Engineer for his report upon the case, and that on the 23rd of the month the Assistant Executive Engineer reported thereon to the Commissioner. On the 31st December Mr. Crawford forwarded the papers relating to this suit to the Assistant Executive Engineer, requesting him to instruct the defendant's solicitor to defend the suit on their behalf. Mr. Leathes further said that the offices of the Municipal Commissioner and of the Executive Engineer were closed till the 2nd instant on account of the Christmas holidays, and consequently the instructions of the Commissioner were not received in the office of the Assistant Executive Engineer until about twenty minutes past before 11 o'clock on the day of the hearing of the case. Mr. Leathes raised an objection that the service of the summons upon the Municipal Commissioner was not legal; it ought to have been served at the office of the defendants.

Mr. O'Leary said that the defendants knew that the case was fixed for that day, and if they were not prepared to go on with it they ought to have instructed their counsel to appear before the court to get it postponed for some other day.

After some little discussion the Court granted a rule nisi, ordering the defendants to deposit the amount of the verdict in Court.

CORRESPONDENCE.

AMICUS.—You had better consult a legal gentleman. If you expect a lawyer to answer a question like yours gratuitously and spontaneously through the columns of a Newspaper, you are greatly mistaken.

RATES OF EXCHANGE.

To the Editor of the Bombay Gazette.

SIR,—Can you not suggest some remedy for the horrid evil we are labouring under? I mean the awfully heavy rates of exchange on remittances to London. Human patience cannot stand this any longer, and I fear Indian residents with families at home will all go mad one of these fine days, if such tremendous charges are to continue. For instance, for a sight bill on London the Oriental Bank now charges 1s. 10½d. per rupee or 8½ per cent premium, on Scotland and Ireland 1s. 10d. or over 9 per cent, and on Paris 1s. 9¾d or nearly 10 per cent!!

STICK IT INTO THEM.

SIND.

IN our last issue we stated that there would shortly be a general change among the District Judges in the Province; but since then we have heard that the programme of transfers will have to be modified in consequence of one of the gentlemen named requesting to remain where he now is, and that if efforts which, we learn, are being made to secure it, prove successful, the Kurrachee Bench will be filled by a military officer younger than the one first spoken of for the post. We trust this will not be the case. Though a military man may have ability and industry on his side, he has not received that training indispensable to the efficient and enlightened conduct of judicial affairs, without which no one in such a responsible situation can ever expect to command the confidence of the public in the soundness of his decisions. The objection applies with greater force when we come to consider the gravity of the cases which so often occupy the attention of the Kurrachee Court, their intricacies and the magnitude of the commercial interests they involve. It is true that when a judgment is faulty, a remedy may be found in an appeal, but this entails a long bill of costs and vexations if not sometimes ruinous delays, which would be avoided were the best of law administered in the first instance. We trust these few remarks, which but reflect the opinion of the community of Kurrachee, will receive timely attention.—Sindian, Jan. 1.

NORTH-WEST PROVINCES.

AMONG military changes in this station may be noticed the arrival of Captain W. D. Hogg in succession to Major W. C. K. Myine, D. A. C. G.; and the appointment of Dr. Dillon, late of the 12th B. C., to be Garrison Surgeon.—Pioneer, Jan. 1.

CAPTAIN A. G. MAYNE has been appointed to officiate as Cantonment Magistrate of Morar, vice Colonel Wright, who goes to England on leave on medical certificate.—Id.

WE hear that Lieutenant Colonel Cookson, and Mr. C. Boulnois, B. A., have been recommended by their respective Local Governments for the honors of the Exalted Star of India.—Mofussilite.

IT is expected that there will be a Court of Enquiry held immediately on the sanitary state of the 3rd Buffs, and it is currently reported that they will be at once sent to the Depot at Kussowlie.—Id.

OWING to numberless complaints, and the vexatious delays on the Meerut Section of the Punjab and Delhi Railways, the Mails have been carried by mail cart from Ghazeeabad, from the 20th instant.—Id.

THE Government mail cart is to commence running between Agra and Jeypore from the 1st proximo.—Id.

VARIOUS hints have appeared in the newspapers about a sensational case of perjury at Delhi. We give briefly what we believe to be its true history. Lala Wuzeer Singh, a wealthy banker, sued Mr. Walshe, a merchant in Delhi, for Rs. 3,000 due on a bond. The defendant pleaded payment; and both Mr. and Mrs. Walshe gave a detailed account of the manner in which the payment was made. They also denied having admitted the debt or having tried to arrange a compromise. Their statements were contradicted by other witnesses, and a prosecution for perjury was commenced by the plaintiff against Mr. and Mrs. Walshe. Shortly, afterwards, however, the plaintiff withdrew from the prosecution of Mrs. Walshe, alleging, as his reason for doing so, that she was acting under the influence of her husband. The plaintiff then applied to be allowed to withdraw also from the prosecution of Mr. Walshe, on the ground that he (Mr. W.) had ill-used his wife. The Magistrate remarked that this did not seem exactly a pertinent reason for dropping the prosecution, but he nevertheless did allow Wuzeer Singh to withdraw from it, and himself took up both cases on behalf of the Crown. The preliminary enquiry was held before Mr. Fitzpatrick, Deputy Commissioner of Delhi; Mr. Jardine, Barrister-at-Law, appeared for the Crown; Mr. Prichard, Barrister-at-Law, for the accused. We have not received a detailed report of the evidence, but the result was that both the accused were committed for trial before the Chief Court of the Punjab. The Commissioner, in giving judgment for the plaintiff in the appeal of the civil suit, expressed his opinion that there was something mysterious and unexplained in the case, and this seems to be the general belief in Delhi.—Pioneer, Jan. 3.

CENTRAL PROVINCES.

WE learn that the main line of Railway from Bombay to Calcutta is to be opened to a further length from Khundwa to Beree in a few days.—Id.

WE understand that it is in contemplation to appoint Lieutenant Bloomfield an Assistant Commissioner, and to give the vacant Assistant Secretaryship to Mr. G. J. Nicholls, B. C. S.—Id.

WE hear from Jubbulpore that the Chief Commissioner, Mr. George Campbell, has been visiting every part of that station and has lighted upon many grievous sanitary evils, the greatest of which is that famous sink of the Lac factory. Some unsightly buildings in course of construction have been stopped, and generally the action of the D. P. W. has been vigorously overhauled.—Id.

H. M.'s 46th Regiment arrived here yesterday morning from Lucknow, and was played by the Station Band to the encamping ground near the Maharaj Bagh. The Regiment is now upwards of 800 strong, and has given 52 volunteers to the Abyssinian Expedition. The men appear to be in excellent health, and are elated at the prospect of being quartered at so pleasant a station as Poona whither they are to proceed early next week.—Id.

PUNJAB.

LAHORE like most Indian stations boasts of its Mall, but here, we regret to notice, that the Mall is a snare and a delusion. If a man wishes to meet any of his friends it is the last place he would go to in order to find them. In weather like the present, when it is too cold and damp to play croquet, it would be a great boon if one could be sure of meeting friends somewhere, and we have frequently had the road which leads from the Accountant General's Offices to the John Lawrence Gardens called to our attention as the best place for a ride. The gardens above alluded to present now many attractions, and by a slight stretch of the imagination might be compared to the Bois de Boulogne at Paris. We take the liberty of hinting that if only some of the elite of Lahore would now and then show themselves there in the afternoons the illusion would be more complete, and the society of this large and scattered station would have more chance of becoming cohesive than it has now.—"Indian Public Opinion," Dec. 31.

IN Lahore we are inundated with visitors. In the cold season especially hardly a day passes without some fresh arrivals and departures. Friends wish to meet friends, but owing to the size of our civil station and its straggling form they rarely hear that an acquaintance has arrived until he is gone. We, as servants of the public shall be glad if we can promote the general convenience by announcing such arrivals and departures as may be communicated to us. In future, we shall reserve a small portion of our limited space for this purpose, and will feel obliged if travellers, residents of the station, the Honorary Secretary of the Club, and managers of hotels, will keep us informed of the arrivals and departures coming under their cognizance. It will be useful to state in the case of arrivals the house where the individual named is to reside, and in that of departures the station to which he is proceeding.—Id.

PARTICULARS have reached us of a most diabolical murder committed a few days ago at a village near the celebrated shrine of Jawalla Mookhi in the Kangra district. The cause of the crime was that of nineteenths of the murders in this province—a criminal intrigue. A man named Nundoo had for some time past, notwithstanding the efforts of one Sooba, the accused in the present case, lived in concubinage with Sooba's father's second wife. It appears that remonstrances having proved unavailing Sooba was unable any longer to bear the dishonour cast on his family, so arming himself with a sword, he lay in wait for Nundoo. Sooba had not long to wait his opportunity. Nundoo was proceeding to his fields when he was suddenly attacked and severely wounded by Sooba; the cries of the wounded man were herd by the neighbouring villagers who came to his assistance and compelled Sooba to fly. He managed to evade his pursuers and returning to the village by another road met Nundoo's wife, son, and sister-in-law, all of whom he cut down and killed; he then went to his own house and murdered his mother-in-law whose infidelity had aroused the spirit of vengeance in him. To crown all, Sooba fired the village, and escaped into the thick dense jungle which surrounded it. As the murderer was armed with two swords and threatened to take the life of any one who approached him his capture was no easy matter. Intimation having been sent to the nearest police station, a Deputy Inspector and constable started in pursuit of the offender; Sooba was brought to bay in some thick underwood and after considerable trouble, and of course no little risk, the swords were wrested out of his hands and he was taken prisoner. Kangra is one of the districts in the Punjab which has not been disarmed.—Id., Dec. 27.

HIS Highness the Maharaja of Khetree, whose excellent administration, which Sir John Lawrence has held up as an example to all the Rajpootana States, stands in such favourable contrast to the misgovernment of Jeypore, has paid a visit to Lahore, where he has been staying for the last few days. The young Raja returns after having made a tour through several provinces to his territories and leaves Lahore to-day. He is a fair English scholar and takes a deep interest in all matters relating to education. In this he appears to be well supported by his advisers. We hear that he intends publishing an account of his tour.—Id.

ALLEGED MUTINY ON BOARD THE "NAVARINO."

(Straits Times, December 21.)

THE following is the deposition of Mr. John Grant, chief officer of the British barque "Navarino," taken at the Police Hospital on 18th December, at the adjourned inquest held on the body of the late Richard White, formerly second officer of that vessel.

John Grant, sworn, states:—I am mate on board the barque "Navarino," of which James Young is the commander. We left Singapore Roads on the 4th December 1867. I had been unwell for a few days previous to this. The ship went outside and at 10 o'clock I went and laid in my own cabin. About 11-30 A. M. the second mate called me. On awaking, I saw the captain sitting on the settee on the opposite side of the table, and I heard the second mate ask him for 2 lbs. of tobacco for the men. I was then sitting on the settee on the opposite side of the table to where the captain was seated. I then offered to get the tobacco, but the second mate would not let me. The captain, second mate, and myself, conversed for two or three minutes, and as far as I recollect, I got up and went into my cabin. My recollection is not good, owing to fear of what has occurred; all minor points seem to have escaped my memory. I was not drunk at the time, but not quite sober. That morning, I had taken two glasses of port wine which had been given me by the captain the night previous. I sat down in the cabin, and after this I cannot say what occurred. I have a dim recollection of leaving the cabin and going on deck, and that at the same time I was stabbed by some person as I was ascending the companion. I have a dim recollection whilst I was sitting in the cabin, of angry words passing between the captain and second mate in the cabin. If the boy had been in the pantry, I could not have seen him. I recollect making a statement to the Master Attendant on board the "Navarino" the same night. This statement was read over to me the following morning when I could recollect as much as I have now said. The statement is much to the same effect as what I have now said, and is perfectly true. I have never sailed with Captain Young before this voyage which has extended over ten months. Within the last month or more, I have been on good terms with the captain. I could not swear as to what state the captain and the second mate were in when I awoke up from my sleep. The general conversation in the cabins was about the ship, the yards, &c. I do not recollect the captain telling me that I was drunk, nor do I remember his calling the hands down. I did not see the captain strike the second mate. I have no recollection of a scuffle in the cabin. I did not sail in the same employ as the captain before. I do not recollect the captain ordering the second mate to leave the cabin, nor do I remember his calling me to assist him in resisting the second mate. I have a recollection of seeing the carpenter about the time I was wounded, but whether it was on deck or below, I cannot say, or whether before or after I was wounded. I have no recollection of seeing the second mate attempt to strike the captain. I have no recollection of having struck the captain on the wrist.

The following is the Master Attendant's evidence:—

Henry Burn, sworn, states:—I am Master Attendant and Marine Magistrate at this station. On the 4th December between 4 and 5 P. M., I went on board a barque which had up signals of distress, and I subsequently learnt that her name was the "Navarino." On going alongside I ascertained that there had been a mutiny on board. I then went on board and went down into the cabin with the master. The master, James Young, told me something to the effect that there had been a row and that he had stabbed a man who was dead and another man who was dying. I went on deck with Captain Young and then took the vessel with the assistance of the steamer "Rainbow," into the harbour. The vessel was then beating into the harbour, and I gave Captain Young into the charge of the police and sent him on shore. While the vessel was coming into harbour, in consequence of what I heard, I ordered the chief mate to be brought on deck. The chief mate gave me his name as John Grant. I then asked him if he thought he was dying. He replied, "I hope not, I am a strong man, I trust I shall recover." I had previous to this, signalled for medical assistance. The chief mate then made a statement to me which I took down on oath and in writing in pencil. The statement now produced is the one and was made in the presence of the prisoner who cross-examined the chief mate, and also the statement was read to the prisoner by me. [An objection is here made by Mr. Woods to the document being produced,—Objection over-ruled by the Coroner.] The statement was written by Mr. Reeve, Midshipman of H. M. S. "Zebra." I also asked the captain if he had any other questions to ask the mate. He replied no, after asking those two or three. He passed a remark that the statement was not true. I swore the chief mate on the Bible. The captain appeared as if in a stupor of strong excitement when I went on board, but seemed perfectly sober. When I asked him what was the matter, he replied, "There's a mutiny on board." I immediately asked an officer of H. M. S. Zebra who accompanied me on board to check the crew coming aft, which he did, whilst I went down into the cabin. I saw the chief mate the following day on board the ship and read over the deposition to him, who again told me it was the truth. I recollect the captain saying that he had been ill and had been badly used.

The following is the defence set forth by the captain of the Nauarino, at the inquest held yesterday:—

On Tuesday, the 3rd instant, received on board a stock of water and other small articles for the voyage to Hongkong. On Wednesday, the 4th idem, I rose at 4-30 A. M., and turned the chief mate out to order the coffee for the crew before they got the ship underweigh and be ready to trip the anchor, when the pilot came on board to proceed through the Straits of Rhio. While those preparations were going on, I examined a package of money of 260 rupees, and found the packages had been taken from the place and broken loose and plundered, but to what extent I did not then examine, but it was afterwards found to the extent of 100 rupees. After I, got my ship underweigh I steered her out of the Roads of Singapore. I accompanied the pilot on deck until nearly 10 o'clock in the forenoon. On deck, I told the pilot that I had been sick for a long time, and that I would rest myself for an hour or so on the settee, and that he was to be very careful, and that I would be along with him before he entered the Straits of Rhio. He then objected; the mate being drunk. I told him to proceed as the weather was fine. At about a quarter to 11 of the same morning, both chief and second mate came into the cabin in a shameful state of intoxication. They demanded 2lbs of tabacco for two of the men, which they got. I told them that they ought to be ashamed of themselves to be in that disgraceful state, and I so sickly, and the ship amongst dangers. With this, they both set upon me and abused me, and the second mate struck at me. I called the chief mate to defend me against the violence of the second mate. This he declined. I then twice called for the crew to defend me against both of them. This was either not heard, or disrespected. I then found myself alone in a sickly and defenceless state in the presence of two desperate drunken men. I remonstrated with them, but they became the more violent. I retreated to avoid them till I was in a corner of the cabin, and could not retreat any further. There was a small side-board near this corner, upon which three bayonets were lying. They were within my reach, and, as the mates, advanced towards me, in a threatening manner, I was only alone, a sickly defenceless man. I claimed the right of self-defence in a quiet and clear manner, and found myself totally left to the mercy or violence of them both. I took up one of the bayonets for my own defence, and gave them every caution to desist from their violence upon me. With this, the second mate threw himself forward upon me in a most violent manner and being drunk at the same time, his foot caught the stove-pan and he came head first upon me and came in contact with the bayonet which entered his neck in a downward direction. Upon this, the carpenter came into the cabin and exclaimed, "My God, I am afraid I am too late!" He assisted the second mate out of the cabin. The chief mate then seized upon me and he had a violent struggle with me in order to get me down under him. In so doing, he gave me a slight wound in the right arm and I pricked him twice with the bayonet in defence of my life without any intention of doing him serious harm. The chief mate then let me go, and went up on deck. I went up on deck also and saw him at the top of the companion. He tried to go down to the cabin and I prevented him. I then ordered the pilot to put the ship about for Singapore, which was done. This is a plain and simple statement.

The jurors after retiring about half-an-hour, returned the following verdict:—"We are of opinion that the deceased, Richard White, met his death from a bayonet wound inflicted by James Young in self-defence, and accordingly returned a verdict of "Justifiable Homicide."

Captain Young, of the British barque Navarino was yesterday (14 Dec,) arraigned before the Sitting Magistrate, F. H. Gottlieb, Esq., charged with the Wilful Murder of the second officer of his vessel, named Richard White. His Worship informed the prisioner that application had been made by the prosecution for a postponement of the case until the 17th instant, on which day he would again be brought up for a full investigation and the Magistrate trusted he would then be fully prepared with his Counsel and witnesses if he was desirous of producing any. The prisoner replied, "Your Worship, it is my earnest wish that there should be the fullest investigation, so that all may become informed of the whole of the circumstances which attended this most unfortunate affair." He was then removed and committed for safe custody to H. M.'s Gaol.

Captain Young was yesterday, 19th December, brought up again before the Sitting Magistrate on a charge of "Wilful Murder," and the case was remanded for a week owing to the pressure of business at present devolving upon the magistrate in the Police Court.

ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS.

(From the Times' Correspondent.)

NAPLES, Nov. 20.

As yet I have done scarcely more than note the fact of the eruption of Vesuvius, but so much has it increased since Wednesday last, and so marvellously beautiful is the spectacle, that it merits a more detailed report. Unlike those terrific displays which we have had at times, and which cease with one great effort, this is a lava eruption increasing ever in force and beauty, and promising a duration of some weeks, if not months. If so—and it is the opinion of those most experienced in these matters—all the world may see it as soon as the groundless fears as to the state of Naples have vanished. For the first one or two nights the mountain was modest enough in its demonstrations—tongues of fire shot up to announce its internal agitation, and a thin stream of lava trickled down behind in the direction of Ottajano, which lies on the south-east side of Vesuvius. Some friends who went up there early gave a vague idea of the scene, and spoke of eight or ten new craters, being no more than so many fissures opened by the explosive force of the mountain, and which change in number and character from day to day. For the last two or three nights, however, the scene has been as grand as can well be conceived; but, before giving details, let me describe the actual state and appearance of the mountain. Since December, 1861, it has been almost quiescent, with the exception of one or two sulky and uncertain puffs, and our clear blue atmosphere has ceased to be marked with the spiral columns of smoke. On the very summit has gaped the huge crater, measuring nearly 700 feet in circumference, around which even children might have played, being careful only to avoid certain sulpherous exhalations which were emitted at intervals. During the last two years a small cone has been formed by the matter gradually ejected from this sulphurous hole; we could scarcely see its head above the walls of the large crater, but within the last week, like some presumptuous striplings, it has shot up above its venerable parent, and this it is which has been fuming and spluttering and storming with all the arrogant impatience of youth since last Wednesday. It has sent forth an immense quantity of lava, converting the surrounding crater into a lake of fire. At first the high circling walls kept it within bounds but gradually it has risen and risen until it is now flowing down in several directions where the abrupt and irregular wall admits of a passage. The result has shown that it is lower in the direction of Ottajano, on the south-east, and those who do not care to make the ascent may have a glorious view of it from Sorrento. Still there is nothing like mounting to the top, so let us be off; yet, better still, suppose it to have been done, and that last night. Giovanni Cozzolino was our guide, who, by virtue of having accompanied Humboldt and many of the scientific and literary men of the age, expects his own name to be enrolled in literary annals. He is, however, a very safe and intelligent guide. There was no incident to mark until we got to the foot of the main cone, when we heard the thunder of the mountain and felt the shocks as of an earthquake at every effort made to disgorge the liquid fire. Ascending by the usual road, we were compelled on approaching the summit, to skirt a little round to the south-east, for two reasons—first, to get on the blind side of the wind, which might have brought down upon us an inconvenient shower of stones; and, secondly, to obtain a better view of the main stream, which was fed, not only by the great crater, but by another orifice opened outside, about 20ft. in diameter. From this spot the stream of living fire, full 20 to 30ft. in width, poured down to the bottom of the mountain rapidly where it met with no obstacles, and where it did struggling energetically until it carried every thing before it. To the edge of the crater it was impossible to approach, the heat was scorching; and what would have been the consequences had the lava boiled over and come down upon us? It was difficult, therefore, to form any fair estimate of its size, but one might have supposed that it was not more than 70ft. in diameter. It was not a moment, however, for figures when Nature was exhibiting her power in one of its grandest forms. There was a roar and a shock, and then shot forth flames and stones full 1,000ft. in height, at intervals of from one to five seconds, according to the watch of one of the party; these tremendous convultions were repeated, and they came the descending shower, composed of stones of various sizes, some certainly half a ton in weight, judging by the bulk. We could mark their course by the eye as long as they retained their red heat, but on approaching the earth they blackened, and then the ear alone could tell what was spotting and pitting the earth around. By the same person who had already acted as calculator it was declared that the descent occupied five seconds,—much in excess, I should imagine, of the actual time. Precision, of coursa, was impossible in the excitement of such a scene, and if we say that 1,000ft. was the height attained we shall not be wide of the mark. It was a nervous proximity to danger on which to stand, so the whole party soon decamped, and got back to Naples shortly after midnight, awe-struck by a scene which never can be forgotten. Yet, without the fatigues of an ascent, any one can from the city enjoy a spectacle of marvellous beauty, only diminished in proportions as compared with that which I have just described. There is no sound, but there are those everlasting flames, across the centre of which is sometimes drawn a swathe of dark clouds, giving to their summits the appearance of greater height; and the sky is glaring with a deep-red colour; and mighty stones, reduced by distance, are falling like myriads of stars on the summit of the mountain, the foot of which is wrapped in darkness. What a gorgeous scene, and how much more gorgeous it promises to be!

It is almost humiliating to descend from these grand operations of Nature and speak of the petty affairs of men—of their divisions and struggles and errors—and yet it must be done. The suppression of the municipality and the appointment of a Royal Commissary has infuriated the extreme Liberals, who hoped to have had the government of the city at their disposal. Happily, it is not to be so. The choice of the Commissary has fallen on the Commendatore Pironti, President of the Court of Cassation—an able, honest, and moderate man Fellow-prisoner with Poerio, his sufferings nearly cost him his life, but he has come out of the fire a steady, sensible man well fitted for his office. After writing yesterday I met with Captain ——, who returned four days ago from the Roman campaign. He states that the population of the Pontifical States were generally hostile to them; that women and children took up arms against them, refusing them food and even water. Not merely in the country, but in the towns it was the same. In Velletri they were received only pretty well—"discretamente ben;" in Frosinone, decidedly badly. "In both places the plebiscite was taken by us, and were a plebiscite taken generally it would be in favour of the Pope. The people are all 'veri Cattolic Romani,' and were not worthy of our efforts in their favour; they are far behinband." It confirms the impression which I communicated to you more than two months since, and the wonder is that Italians themselves did not more correctly feel the pulse of the Romans. Of course the emigrants, who compose the intelligence of the Pontifical subjects, are to a man opposed to the Government of their country.

OUTRAGE ON TWO FRENCHMEN IN SIAM.

THE MODE OF REDRESS.

(Siam Weekly Monitor.)

ON Sunday, the 10 Nov., two French gentlemen, timber merchants, residents of this city proceeded some miles up the river on a shooting excursion, during which they visited the lands attached to one of the Wats or Buddhist temples, for the purpose of shooting some pigeons. Unluckily for themselves they proceeded to a temple well known to almost all other Europeans by the name of the fighting Wats it being the refugeum for all thieves and scoundrels in that part of the city. Many parties of Europeans on similar excursions have been driven from its hospitable grounds under a perfect shower of stones, brickbats, and other missiles.

On this occasion there seems to have been some provocation on the part of the Europeans. As far as we can learn at present, one of them Monsieur Picot, lost or had his ramrod stolen by a Siamese boy whilst loading his gun. He immediately proceeded to the house of the head priest and haughtily demanded that it should be given up. On being informed that the priest was ignorant of the matter, he is said to have told him he lied, and that he would smash the flower pots in front of his house if he did not see to the matter, and commenced to make good his threat with the stock of his gun.

Hundreds of excited Siamese and priests now commenced to gather brickbats, and stones commenced to fly, clubs were freely used on the two unfortunate Europeans who were left lying on the landing insensible, a mass of wounds and blood.

A Catholic priest, also a Frenchman, proceeding down the river heard of the occurrence and, after sending news to Bangkok, hastened to their relief, and requested the Budhist priests to allow him to remove the senseless bodies, which was refused.

A short time after a number of European gentlemen from the city well armed arrived on the scene, and forcibly removed their wounded friends, who were immediately taken to Bangkok and placed in the skillful hands of Dr. Campbell. On examination they were found to be one case of cuts, wounds, and bruises, from head to foot, and at present their lives are despaired of, their boat, guns, and all other portable property were of course stolen by the Siamese.

His Ex. the French Minister has demanded that the Siamese authorities make strict enquiry in this matter.

It is well understood that it is contrary to Siamese law to shoot on these temple lands, but the Siamese had no right to take the law in their own hands, and we have no hesitation in saying that the brutal manner in which Monsieur Picot and his friend were used, is considered by every European in Siam as a most outragious insult.

On Sunday, the 17th of Nov., the public of Bangkok had the option given them of witnessing a scene never before witnessed in Siam, or we believe in the whole East. The Siamese authorities having made diligent enquiry into the case of Messrs. Cosson and Picot, on the demand of the French Minister, and having found that a number of the priests, and hangers on round the temple, were at least guilty of riot, resolved accordingly to punish them and render complete justice to the two wounded men.

At 3 P. M. on the above mentioned date, large crowds of natives began to gather on the ground on which the assault was committed, some by land and a large concourse by water, from a rough calculation we should say there were about three thousand present, the river was crowded with boats and canoes to about the number of seven hundred.

We noticed on the ground about two thirds of our foreign community including His Excellency the Minister for France and suit, and a company of seamen from H.I. Majesty's steamer Alarme, armed to the teeth. There were also a number of the Siamese nobility to superintend the proceedings.

Ten natives, hangers on round the temple, were about to receive a severe flogging at the hands of two Siamese executioners, but after receiving a few lashes were let off through the clemency of the French Minister, though there is no doubt whatever that these very men were the ringleaders in the outrage for which they were about to pay the penalty.

A number of Buddhist priests, say twenty, now appeared on the scene with their hands united on their breasts in token of respect, and marched in front of the ranks of the company of sailors at a slow pace. It was said the authorities were about to make them kneel, but of this punishment the French minister did not approve and so commuted it.

Such homage, we believe, was never before rendered by a Buddhist priest to either European or American. After the ceremony a number of bags of money were produced and passed to the officers of the French war steamer, and conducted by them to their boats, the sum was stated at ticals 5,000 being the amount of the recompence demanded; how it will be divided we cannot at present say.

The whole affair commands our respect for the manner in which the authorities executed the penalty of the laws on the guilty parties, and we hope such a lesson will prevent the recurrence of such outrages in future.

Some of our cotemporaries might think that the Siamese government was indimidated, but such we are happy to inform them was not the case. At present in Siam, from His Majesty down, all the officials appear to be more engrossed with the many feasts and processions that occur at this time of the year, than with any other things.

But the manner in which Mons. Duchesne de Bellecourt, the French Minister, performed his duty to his Government, his country, and countrymen, and the interests of the foreign community in Siam, is certainly well worthy of the highest praise and merit, and we hope will act as a lesson to all nations in Siam on such occasions. With him there was no we'll take the matter into consideration, or we'll write about the matter to the Siamese government," or on application of the injured parties for redress, "you should be cautious with these Siamese," or "very sorry we can do nothing." No! the words used by his Excellency on this occasion, were plain and simple, but firm and severely pointed, "Donne moi satisfaction," and he received it.

MAXIMILIAN IN MEXICO.

(From the Times.)

THE less that any one who takes up these volumes knows of Mexico the more interesting they will prove, for they both contain sketches of Mexican life and history, familiar enough to those who have a previous knowledge of the affairs of the Republic, but new, probably, to the general reader. Mr. Felton's book is a lively and agreeable record of some rather aimless wanderings in Mexico, at a time when many Europeans were attracted thither by curiosity or love of adventure. He gives his reader some little glimpses into Mexican life, which are sufficiently amusing to make his chapters worth the time it takes to read them. The narrative of the Countess Paula Kollonitz is of greater interest on account of the position she held at the Court of the ill-fated Imperial couple who, in the space of three years, passed through every variety of vicissitude which relieves or darkens human life. The Countess evinces, it is true, a fondness for small details of her experiences, which her readers are not likely to share with her, and she dwells with unprofitable care upon descriptions of personal sensations under circumstances which are notoriously unpleasant. She was very sea-sick on her voyage out, and at such times, as was quite natural, "great moral depression seized her;" the walls of her cabin moved when she would have preferred them to be stationary; the ocean was sometimes blue, and sometimes it was another colour; the approach of a ship was interesting; sea life is monotonous; when one is at Madeira it seems like being transported to fairyland—these are some of the Countess's observations, and they do not differ in any striking particular from the reflections of commonplace persons. But there is something better than all this in the book, and it contains, perhaps the most trustworthy account as yet published in the short rule of Maximilian which has yet seen the light. The authoress was a devoted attendant upon the Empress, and every incident she relates in connexion with that unfortunate lady is calculated to increase the pity which the civilized world has felt for her heavy sorrows.

When an event is decided, and instead of the mysteries of the future we have to deal with the facts of history, it is easy for a writer to make us believe that he had a presentiment of all that was to follow. But the Countess Paula Kollonitz published her book before the tragedy of the Austrian rule in Mexico was consummated at Queretaro, and therefore we do not question the fidelity of her recollections when she tells us that "Kaiser Max" left Miramar with sad forebodings. The citizens of Trieste sent an address to him, and when it was presented he burst into tears. As the Archduke and Archduchess went on their way to the steamer, crowds followed them along the streets, bidding them farewell, and again Maximilian was much touched and affected. The poor Empress was more sanguine and animated. She knew little of the character of the people among whom she was going, and she thought it was enough that her husband had been invited by the Mexicans themselves to be their ruler. She therefore dwelt upon the coming days with eagerness and vivacity. She read books and studied maps of the country by day and night. Whatever may hereafter be said of the mistakes of policy committed by Maximilian, it can never be questioned that he and his wife were filled with conscientious and pure intentions towards their future people. The Emperor aimed at doing so much. He began by trusting the Mexicans—an irreparable mistake. After that all his errors were trivial. When he had once fairly placed himself in their hands his doom was certain. Had he only remembered the story of Ytzbilde all might have ended differently.

Moreover, there were certain dangerous pitfalls prepared for him by the French. They had ill-used the Mexicans, and stirred up great anger and discontent. If we may trust the authoress, Ma

ROGERS & Co.
PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTS.
NOW DISSOLVING PARTNERSHIP.

THE business being specially organized for the dispensing of prescriptions, and the importation and the manufacture of pure drugs, chemical and pharmaceutical preparations, every appliance has been provided both in the laboratory and dispensing department to insure correctness and rapidity in compounding medicine, and to facilitate the preparation of remedies of guaranteed purity.

The dispensing of prescriptions is carried on by a staff of trained assistants under the immediate supervision of the manager, and is controlled by a system of check which, he ventures to think, will secure public confidence.

The long attention which the manager has devoted to the fitting up of MEDICINE CHESTS in this country will enable D. S. K. & Co to offer a selection of these invaluable requisites more varied than any hitherto available; and the little book supplied with each Chest (D. S. K.'s Medicine Chest Companion) will fully explain the use of each remedy.

AERATED WATERS.—An inspection of their manufactory is invited. An improvement has been introduced by which uniformity of pressure is ensured, and escape of gas while bottling prevented.

Filtration, treatment with Charcoal and tempering of the water, are carefully provided for.

INVALIDS' AND INFANTS' FOODS.—D. S. K. & Co have been entrusted with the Agency for Messrs. ALEX. ROBB & Co.'s Biscuits, regular supplies of which are received Overland. The various Foods, Cocoas, &c. from time to time recommended are always kept in stock.

WINES, SPIRITS, &c.—These being specially for invalids' use are necessarily of the choicest qualities. A list of the brands in stock will from time to time be issued.

PERFUMERY, and Sundries strictly connected with Medicine are kept only of the very finest qualities.

The attention of suburban residents is respectfully called to the following Post Office arrangements which will facilitate and expedite the execution of any orders that may be sent to D. S. K. & Co. from Byculla, Malabar Hill, Parell, Mazagon, Colaba, &c. Prescriptions transmitted in this manner will be dispensed and forwarded a once.
